These are situational cards of things that kids could endure during the school day.

Directions:

1. Have your kids read the situation or read it to them.
2. Discuss some possibilities of how they can handle it.
3. There are two different sections:
  - a. What would they do if it was happening to them.
  - b. What would they do to stand up for others.
4. The outcome is supposed to show them how to handle it in a positive way.
